December 2017 Edition

Kids R Kids of Castle Hills

Happy Holidays!

Season's Greetings and welcome to the December edition of Kids R Kids News! "Tis' the Season to be Jolly!" As we move into the holiday season, cheer seems to be spreading. It's a wonderful time to reflect on our lives and the impact of our family and traditions. Therefore, family is one of the many themes reflected in our curriculum. This month the children will complete the "Family and Food" units and begin the unit entitled "Celebrate Good Times." Topics will focus on things like: understanding individual needs and preferences, social skills and family roles. Don't forget to check the calendars for lots of wonderful upcoming events here at KRK.
